Now, as we begin 2021, our staff remains committed to offering a wide variety of services, both in-person and virtual, while maintaining established safety protocols. Our librarians are anxious to assist in finding those titles on our shelves for you. Simply give us a call at 326-6330, ext. 105 for Adult Services or ext. 108 for Children’s Services. We’re more than happy to help you check out the latest titles, movies, music, and more. Browse this newsletter to discover the new, exciting programs being offered to you and your family throughout January and February.

Remember, the Library staff is always eager to serve you. Just ask.

Wishing you a happy, healthy new year.
